

2 Chefs wanted for seaside hotel in small fishing village on Skanes East coast with intense tourist season.

Kivikstrand Badhotell was built in 1879, first as a school and since 2012 as a seaside hotel with restaurant.

The hotel has 13 rooms with boutique-hotel charm and room for 30 overnighting guests. Situated on the beach in a popular holiday destination we have an intense season with many visitors daily. Kivik is a calm holiday resort for families with slow night life.

We are open from Easter until November with the majority of the guests during the summer months. We are a staff of 10 working during summer.

Work description: We are looking for two fulltime chefs that are used to work independently in the kitchen will full own responsibility and with the hotels best in mind. One chef is needed from 7th of May to 26th of August and one from 25th of June to 12th of August.

We serve around 25 persons per night and have two waitresses. The food is based on local produce of the season with at least two or three meals from a fixed menu. Our pastry chef is helping out with the desserts. The persons we are looking for should be responsible, loyal, hardworking and be able to handle stress in a good way.

The menu is Swedish classics prepared for a good flow in the kitchen with a major part of fish. The restaurant owner will do all purchases and staff responsibilities.

Our kitchen is small but modern and clean and we use sous-vide cooking a lot to help work flow. The working hours are 3 pm to 11 pm 5 days per week or 10:30 am to 11 pm 3-4 days per week during high season. No staff meals included. Wages according to Swedish collective agreements. We hope for good collaboration with our female pastry chef and sufficient communication skills in English and that you are easy going and enjoy working with people.

The staff housing is 3 km from the hotel on our private apple farm. Transport with own or rented car to Kivik. The apartment is 30 sqm in two levels with bathroom and kitchen to be shared among the two chefs. 2500 sek/month/person in rent including everything.
